ARE FILED TODAY

Thomas Barnes Seeks Divorce From Pearl Barnes and Mollie Caudill Sues Samuel Caudill

QUIET TITLE SUIT IS FILED

E. I. Wooden Wants Judgment on Account From J. M. Brown and W. E. Smith Sues H. P. Meek

Two suits for divorce, a complaint on an account, a suit to quiet title and a complaint to foreclose a mortgage, have been docketed in the circuit court.

Thomas N. Barnes is plaintiff in a suit for divorce from Pearl Barnes, in which he charges her with neglecting her duties as housewife, going to places against his will, and being intimate with other men.

The plaintiff says in his complaint that they were married almost 29 years ago, in August 1891 and separated in May of this year, and that eleven children were born to them, all but four now being self supporting, and he demands the custody of these children.

Mollie Caudill is plaintiff in the other suit for divorce from Samuel Caudill, in which she also seeks the custody of a small child. They were married in Kentucky in January, 1920 and separated in November of the same year. She charges him with being lazy, and that he worked only two weeks during their nine months of married life. The plaintiff resides in Carthage, according to the complaint.

Edward I. Wooden, a physician, has filed suit against John M. Brown on an account, together with an affidavit for attachment. The demand is for $70 on the account, which is alleged to be overdue.

Walter E. Smith has filed suit against Henry P. Meek, demanding the foreclosure of a mortgage, and for judgment in the sum of $100.

Lafe G. Hall, et al., are plaintiffs in an action filed against Martha J. Gordon, et al., the complaint being to quiet the title of real estate, in which several parties are basing their claim as to the ownership.

In the circuit court business was quiet Monday and today on account of the absence of Judge Sparks, who is out of the city. The jury has not been called into service until Friday.

DIVORCE HEARING

TO END LATE TODAY

Over Seventy Witnesses Summoned For Trial of John T. Meek Against Daisy Meek at Greensburg

INVOLVES 4-CORNERED AFFAIR

The divorce suit of John T. Meek against Daisy Meek, filed in the Decatur circuit court, involving a four corner affair with Glass Darnell and his wife Mabel Darnell involved as co-respondents to the couple, was expected to end this afternoon before Judge John Craig.

Over 70 witnesses had been summoned for the trial, most of them from the Milroy neighborhood, where the parties reside. A cross complaint filed by Mrs. Meek, which contained property disposal, was said to have been compromised in court yesterday, and this caused the trial to be much shorter than expected.

Jesse Hammond and Joe Morford, two farm hands employed by Meek, testified yesterday that they went into the home of Meeks in February, and came upon Darnell and Mrs. Meek, in a most peculiar predicament.

While the Meek couple is getting a divorce in Greensburg, the Darnell couple has a case pending in this court, in which each accuses the Meek family as being co-respondents in their cases.

MRS. MARY BROWN EXPIRES

Services Held This Afternoon For Resident of Manilla

Funeral services were held this afternoon at the M. E. church in Manilla for Mrs. Mary Brown, widow of Robert Brown, who expired at her home in Manilla Sunday morning about 8:30 o'clock, death resulting from a complication of diseases. Burial was made this afternoon in the Bennett cemetery. The deceased was 79 years old, and lacked a few days of reaching her four score birthday.

Three sons survive, who are Scott Brown, Samuel Brown and John H. Brown, all of near Manilla. The deceased was a member of the Seventh Day Adventist church at Waldron.

POSTAL IMPROVEMENT WEEK GETS RESULTS

Postal Authorities Notice Beneficial Effects Immediately After Making Plea to Patrons

ONE EXAMPLE IS CITED

The campaign conducted during Postal Improvement Week, May 1 to 6, is beginning to bear fruit, it was reported at the postoffice today. The plea for patrons to do certain things to expedite the handling of mail was immediately answered by many who had unthoughtfully been practicing the abuses which served to delay the mails.

The most frequent abuse in the past has been for business men to post a large collection of mail addressed to all parts of the country in the evening when it was impossible for the mail clerks to make any of the outgoing mails that evening; whereas if the mail had been posted at periods during the day, as written, all of it probably would have been sent out the day of mailing.

Frequently, too, it has been the habit of business men never to sort their mail before posting it, which delays the work of mail clerks in dispatching it. An example of the results which are being obtained was cited today, when it was recalled that a few hours after the plea to patrons to help improve the postal service, appeared in the Daily Republican Saturday, a Rushville man mailed a large number of letters, which were sorted by counties and enabled the clerks to distribute them in much less time and dispatch them.

BELIEVE JUVENILES ARE ENTERING STORES

Small Opening Cut Monday Night in Screen of H. A. Kramer Meat Shop—Nothing is Taken

POLICE SUSPECT YOUTHS

The Harry A. Kramer meat market, located on North Main street, between Second and Third streets, was entered last night by a robber, whom the police believe is a juvenile, but after getting inside of the place, nothing was taken. A screen at a rear window was cut, and the window was pried open a few inches, which would scarcely admit a 12 or 14 years old child. The large cash register which works with a crank handle, could not be operated by the youth, although there was said to be about $40 in the drawer. The robber attempted to open the cash register, but in some manner got the keys locked, and as far as could be learned, nothing was taken.

The police believe that the petty thieving recently is being done by young boys, and last week barefoot tracks were left in the Big Four depot which was entered by prying up a window, and the tracks looked like those of a 10 or 12 year old boy, the police said.

SUIT IS DISMISSED

A suit for possession and damages, filed recently by J. T. Arbuckle against Harry Dawson, for possession of a house in South Harrison street, was dismissed in Justice Stech's court today.

TO BUY OLD HOME AT NEW HARMONY

Indiana Federation of Women's Clubs Plans to Purchase Historic Fauntleroy Residence

CAMPAIGN TO RAISE FUNDS

Mrs. C. L. Smullen as County Chairman of Federated Clubs, Has Charge of Movement Locally

The historic Fauntleroy home at New Harmony where the first woman's club in the United States was organized in 1859 will become the property of the Indiana Federation of Women's clubs if the movement to raise funds, started at the state convention last year, is successful.

Mrs. C. L. Smullen of Raleigh as county chairman of the federated clubs, has charge of the campaign to raise funds among the Rush county women's clubs affiliated with the state federation.

The abode of a number of eminent scientists and scholars as well as the birthplace of the first of America's clubs for women, the old homestead, has been the subject of increasing interest in the past few years and the goal of many pilgrimages by motorists and travellers from every part of the country. Fitted with rare and beautiful antiques, many of intrinsic value, it is said to be inferior to few of the most famous places in the New England states.

The price of the home, if sold to the federation, is $10,000, an absurdly low figure, it is said, as the furnishings themselves, including a rare old piano priced at $2,000 are themselves worth considerably more. The $10,000 covers the cost of the grounds, house, and furnishings complete.

The federation, composed of 500 clubs and a total membership of 20,000 women has organized to raise the fund. Mrs. O. M. Pittenger, as chairman for the committee is assisted by Harry Dalbey of Richmond is chairman of the sixth district.

The old Fauntleroy home is a frame dwelling, built in 1815, on land deeded to George Rapp in 1814. The architecture of the building is peculiar to the German style of 100 years ago—square, firm, with apparent lasting qualities, good for another century. The timber used, came from neighboring forests, and is hand-hewn hardwood hickory, walnut and oak. Labor was free and the community members in putting up the house used little metal and few nails in the construction. Even the joints were mortised.

Records show that one, Franz Pfeil and family, Rappites, were the first occupants. Ten years later, the Owen community took possession of the town and the building became the home of a number of scientists and authors of national prominence. Thomas Say, the father of American zoology, lived there with his artist wife, Lucy Sistare. In 1837, Oliver Evans, son of the inventor, came into possession of the place. He operated a foundry and made the first cast plays in Indiana.

In 1841 Robert Henry Fauntleroy became the owner. He was a man of marked ability, a mathematician, engineer, musician and inventor. Later he became one of the principal officers of the United States Coast Survey. Near Seattle, Wash., is an inlet, Fauntleroy Cove, named for him. Near the inlet are three mountain peaks named for members of his family.

He married Jane Dale Owen, the accomplished daughter of the eminent socialist, in 1835 and it was their oldest daughter, Constance, who founded the Minerva, the first woman's club of America. From this distinguished family the house receives its name. The house was enlarged and at different periods the Owen brothers at some time resided there. It was to this house that Robert Dale Owen, the statesman, returning from Washington, brought the astonishing news to those congregated in his home that "a man in congress had been bribed—bribed!" Higher education was given the young people of the community at this house, as such a thing was not as yet afforded by the public schools.

STEVENS ASKS FOR A RECOUNT

Defeated Republican Candidate For Prosecutor Alleges Irregularities in Counting Primary Ballots

CITES RIPLEY PRECINCT TWO

Asserts Board Refused to Count All Legal Votes Cast For Him—Defeated by 6 Votes by J. F. Joyce

Albert C. Stevens has filed a petition in the circuit court asking that a recount of votes be ordered in the 31 voting precincts of Rush county, alleging irregularity, illegality, mistakes and misconduct of the various primary officers in counting the votes last Tuesday, in which John F. Joyce was nominated by six votes, for the republican nomination of prosecuting attorney.

The contestor in the action sets out his plea in three specifications. If the court sustains the petition, he will appoint three commissioners, two republicans and a democrat, who will recount the votes, following a uniform standard in each precinct.

Mr. Stevens, in his complaint, sets out that the methods used in the precincts differed, and names the board of Ripley township Number 2 as showing irregularity: "that they omitted, failed and refused to count for contestor all legal votes cast for him therein for the nomination for said office; that they wrongfully counted for the contestee more votes than he received therein; that they failed and omitted to count for contestor votes received therein—but treated the same as marked, defaced and mutilated ballots."

He alleges further in this connection that his opponent received 67 votes and that he received 79 votes in this precinct, and that he believes that there were enough ballots wrongfully thrown out, which would give him a majority in the number.

He sets out that this circumstance also existed in other precincts, and calls attention to the fact that in some precincts his ballots were thrown out for being marked wrong, while in other precincts such ballots were counted for his opponent. His petition avers that all 31 precincts did not follow a uniform system of

YOUNG MINER LINKED WITH MINERS' MARCH

Witness in Treason Trial Says William Blizzard Exhorted Strikers To "Go Get 'Em."

WEST VA. HEARING CONTINUES

(By United Press)

Charleston, W. Va. May 9.—William Blizzard, young miner leader, charged with treason, today was again linked with the march of the army of miners on Logan and Mingo counties last summer.

Frank Mitchell testifying for the state, charged that Blizzard exhorted the miners on the battle line to "go get 'em."

Blizzard's order, however, came after he had discovered a bomb near the firing line. "Now go get 'em," Blizzard cried, apparently enraged at the finding of the bomb.

The defence produced a crude bomb about three feet in length which was said to have been dropped within the miners' line at Blair Mountain.

Mitchell testified he had been forced to join the miners' army by men who told him he had better go.

Adjutant General Charnock then was called to the stand. He declared that federal troops had confiscated about 250 rifles for the miners' army. Three of the rifles were exhibited to the jury.

A miner D. L. Reed of Edwight, testifying for the state, next took the witness stand and said he was custodian of the local union fund. He told how four armed men during the miners' war compelled him to issue blank checks for the fund.

GOVERNMENT IS NOT INFLUENCED BY GENOA

Regardless of Success or Failure of Conference, United States Will Not Deviate From Plans

RUSSIA "PASSES THE BUCK"

(By United Press)

Washington, May 9.—America will not be influenced in its dealings with Russia by the action of the Genoa conference nor by any steps by any European government, it was declared emphatically at the white house today. Regardless of the success or failure of the Genoa conference this government will not deviate from the plan originally laid down as the basis for resumption of relations with Russia.

Genoa, May 9.—The Russians today shifted to France the responsibility of beginning an end to the Genoa conference.

In plain America, the soviet delegation "passed the buck" upon the Russian reply to the allies' note, the soviet delegation announced it had postponed completion of its reply until it is informed just where France stands.

Tchitcherin announced the Russian reply will not be ready before tomorrow at the earliest. He accompanied this announcement with a note to Senator Schanzer, who was chairman of the conference when the allied note was dispatched.

FINEST TRIBUTE TO PAY A MOTHER

Living up to Her Ideals is Best Way to Repay Her For Life of Service, Dr. Walker Says

SPEAKS TO ROTARY CLUB

Rotarians Who Visited Other Clubs Last Week Report Experiences At Noon Meeting Today

Living up to the ideals of his mother is the finest tribute any man can pay her, declared Dr. John M. Walker of this city, superintendent of the Connersville district of the Methodist Episcopal church, addressing the Rotary club at noon.

Every mother's principal desire for her son is that he be good, Dr. Walker said, and the boy who aspires to and reaches the mark set by his mother, is doing more in repayment for her life of sacrifice and service, than he could in any other way.

A. C. Cotton, physical director in the public schools, and W. J. Hill, a Greensburg Rotarian, were guests today, and short talks were made by Rushville Rotarians who visited other clubs last week. Those who spoke were Lee Endres, who attended the New York Rotary club; L. L. Allen, who was at Chicago; George Wiltse who was at Battle Creek, Mich.; Earl H. Payne, who was at Connersville, and Hugh E. Mauzy who was in Lafayette.

It was also announced to the club that the board of directors had elected George Griesser to succeed E. B. Thomas, who recently went to San Juan, Porto Rico, as a member of the board, and that Dr. Carl Behr had been selected treasurer to succeed Mr. Thomas.

Dr. Walker, in the short talk on next Sunday's observance, said that it was a splendid testimonial to human character and a refutation of the charge that people were mercenary.

He pointed out that the principal qualities of mother love were sympathy and appreciation and a practical sort of love that shows itself by giving all that it has.

"She exemplifies the spirit of service and self-sacrificing love," Dr. Walker declared, and he recalled from his own experiences "little signs that indicate what is back of a mother's heart."

"It is the spirit of sympathy, appreciation and practicability that makes mother unspeakably precious to us," he said.

He asserted that some were asking what the mothers of the future would be and placed in three classes those for whom some concern is felt—first, the so-called flapper, the suffragist and the club woman.

"We may well feel some concern about these sweet young things who are some times tempted beyond their endurance," Dr. Walker continued, "and we need to see that a certain measure of steadiness enters their life."

The speaker commented on the dangers seen in some quarters as the result of the emancipation of women, but declared that women will continue to marry and become good mothers as long as time goes on.

Dr. Walker said that probably the club woman should be more cause for concern than the suffragist, because of the rapid growth of the women's club movement and the disposition to neglect the home.

"No worse than some of us, however," he stated, "who join everything to be joined and belong to more lodges than there are nights in the week to attend."

Dr. Walker said women's clubs had resulted in women reading more widely and more generally, which in the end would give them a larger vision and would qualify them better for home duties.

STORMS DID BIG DAMAGE

Four Persons Killed and Property Loss High in Texas.

(By United Press)
Dallas Tex., May 9.—Four persons were killed, many injured and thousands of dollars property damage done by storms and floods which swept western Oklahoma and North-east Texas.
Hundreds of families were driven from their homes in lowlands. Ralph McClendon was drowned at Cleburne Texas, when flood waters swept through that town. Three were killed by high wind storms in Oklahoma. The second flood in two weeks threatened Fort Worth with lower sections of the city inundated.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.
Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

Accident Preventatives

Anything that will operate to cause motorists to be less careless at railroad grade crossings, will be of immense value in saving lives at this season when automobile touring is popular and growing more general constantly.

This is what a decision of a court in Cleveland is calculated to do. The court held that a railroad was entitled to judgment against the owners of a motor truck who stalled their machine on a grade crossing at West Park, Ohio, thereby causing a collision with a passenger train. The truck was demolished and the railroad company's property damaged to the extent of $1,902.69.

If careless drivers of automobiles give no thought to their lives and the lives of their passengers, they may be persuaded to be more cautious by the thought that a collision with a train is liable to dig into their pocketbook.

In granting the railroad company judgment for the full amount of damages claimed, the court took occasion to criticize the defendants for the negligent manner in which they operated their truck and called attention to the probability of such an accident resulting in the derailment of a passenger train with possible loss of life and serious injury to passengers.

This is the second time within five months that the paramountcy of the railroads' right to the right-of-way at grade crossings has been recognized by the courts. In the other case the New York Central was awarded judgment against the owner of a truck for the full amount of damages done to the railroad's property in a collision on a grade crossing.

Both decisions emphasize the point that it is the duty of motorists to stop, look and listen before attempting to negotiate a grade crossing, so that the maximum of protection may be assured travelers on trains which must of necessity be operated on regular schedules.

The facts in the case recently decided by the Cleveland court show that on the night of May 27, 1921, P. H. Gilbert and W. G. Goss drove their five-ton truck loaded with cinders onto the West Park grade crossing notwithstanding that they saw the headlight of the on-coming passenger train. Goss attempted to shift the motor into the second speed just as the truck started to cross the railroad tracks. He failed in the operation and stalled his engine. There was not time to signal the approaching train, the men leaving the truck just in time to escape the crash.

The grade crossing was planked and in good order. The regular crossing sign was in good condition and the view of the tracks was unobstructed, so that with the exercise of the ordinary precautions of safety first the accident could have been averted. It was clearly a case where the truckmen were negligent and the court, in awarding damages to the railroad company and criticizing the truck owners, took cognizance of the superior rights of railroads to grade crossing rights-of-way and also of the great danger to which passengers on trains are subjected because of the recklessness of some motorists.

MERITS WILL PLAY SUNDAY

To Occupy Grounds While the Tail Lights Are Away

The Rushville Merits will occupy the baseball diamonds at the Tail Light grounds on next Sunday, during the absence of the Tail Lights, and either the St. Paul team or an Indianapolis team, will be the attraction. Tickets for the game are being sold in advance, and may be purchased from the Two John's pool room, or from any of the Merits players. It is stated that all money received above the expenses, will be donated to some charitable organization.

The name of the team that will play here Sunday will be announced as soon as it is definitely learned.

STORM PREVENTS WORKOUT

I. U. Baseball Team Crossed Pacific in Teeth of 80 Mile Gale

Bloomington, Ind., May 9—Crossing the Pacific in the teeth of an eighty mile gale which dashed one sailor to death and kept most of the Hoosier passengers seasick was the experience of the Indiana University baseball team on its way to play a series in Japan.

A letter from the party, the first to reach this country, said that cold and storm prevented workouts on the deck which Coach Levis had planned to put his men in condition for games with the Oriental players from Waseda University, Tokio. The men arrived with a burden of extra flesh and legs wobbling from the terrific ocean trip.

Exams are over—i. e., over 'our heads.

Rushville merchants have again showed their loyalty towards the school. Many firms who had accounts against the Senior Class, for things purchased for the Senior Class Play have either charged the class cost price or have refused to charge them at all. Beale Bros., Timmers, furnished the light guards and reflectors for the stage lights and refused to accept any payment for them. Only one firm played the class dirt—this firm had the nerve to overcharge about five dollars. We'd like to print their name but can't for business reasons.

The school "gang" around Lytle's Grocery Store has moved from the stove in the rear of the store to the bench out in front, which is a sure sign of spring. Only a few more weeks until this "clubroom of philosophers" will be abandoned. During the winter the real dope on basketball games was thrashed out in the club's regular sessions, which were held every morning and noon before school hours. Only "north-enders" belong to this club—one exception—"Pud" Trennepohl, who comes up the railroad every morning from the west-end. Before adjourning for the summer vacation, the club extends a vote of thanks to Tom Lytle for his hospitality. Mr. Lytle did not charge the club any rent. He derived his profit from chewing gum, cigarettes, and candy sales to club members.

The Senior class day will be held at two o'clock Friday afternoon, May the 19. It will be the last chance of the Seniors for a final jab at underclassmen.

GOLFERS NOW DESIRE MORE USEFUL PRIZES

Silver Cup Trophies Are Rapidly Going Out of Style.

Persistent Tournament Winners Have Long Since Ceased to Admire Memorabilia of That Kind—Evans Has Big Collection.

Silver cups as golf trophies are fast going out of vogue, according to silversmiths, who say that the demand among the golfers for prizes has turned to more useful articles since the day of red jackets and red caps on the links has passed.

There is still a goodly demand for cups among golfers who win events only occasionally, but the persistent tournament winners have long since ceased to prize a silver cup that can only be added to a large number of previously won similar trophies.

Two years ago Stewart Stickney of St. Louis, who has won a barrel full of cups during his golfing career, arranged the prize lists at the Trans-Mississippi championship, held over the links of the St. Louis Country club, so that watches and other useful jewels took the place of cups. He declared that he would not help other golfers to clutter up their attic with useless cups. The utilitarian type of prizes for golf contests has been becoming more popular ever since.

The largest collection of cups won by any one player bears the name of Charles Evans, Jr., of Chicago, the only man to win both an amateur and an open championship in the same year. Evans has turned over all these cups to his club, and the Edgewater Golf club now has the work of keeping them polished and insured against loss. The cost of insurance on some 200 cups is considerable, and the burnishing of the vessels is equally as expensive.

In addition to useful articles of jewelry, medals are said to be coming into use more generally.

The End.

"I'll never ask another girl to marry me as long as I live," groaned the unhappy fellow. "What! Refused again?" asked his sympathetic friend. "No, accepted, you fool!"

The Score Board

Yesterday's hero—Kenneth Williams, Brown star, doubled in the ninth inning and drove in the run that beat the Senators, 6 to 5, and shoved them into last place.

When the White Sox threatened to tie the score in the ninth inning, Carl Mays was hustled into relieve George Miltay and he retired the side, the Yankees winning 7 to 5. Baker hit a homer.

Six runs scored in the last two innings brought the Pirates from way behind and gave them an 8 to 7 victory over the Robins.

"Kill the umpire" may not be new, but it is still in the fan's vocabulary.

The Central league has decided to try the split season idea again this year.

Gus Fisher, manager-catcher of the Oklahoma City entry, has developed an uncertain arm.

Mike Damm, veteran Eastern league catcher, has been sold by the Hartford club to Albany.

The veteran of veterans, Floyd Kroh, has been signed by the Evansville Three-I league club.

Jimmy Hamilton has added another veteran to his Charleston Sally league team in the person of Bill Leard.

The Omaha club has released First Baseman Junk Walters to the Charleston club of the South Atlantic league.

John Couch, the Reds' new right-hand pitcher, appears to have a lot of stuff, good speed and a sharp-breaking curve.

The Columbus association club has transferred Pitcher Jacoby and infielder Shanahan to the Peoria Three-I club.

The Mayfield club of the new Kitty league has signed the veteran Rudy Hulswitt as manager and second baseman.

The Raleigh club of the Piedmont has traded its star outfielder, Harry Dorsey, to Columbia of the South Atlantic league.

Tom Miller, outfielder, last season with Charlotte in the South Atlantic league, is a late acquisition by the Reading Internationals.

Infielder Bobby Smith was an eleventh-hour purchase by the New Orleans club. A year ago he was sold to Beaumont, where he went big last season.

Bill Holden, formerly outfielder with the Baltimore Orioles, has signed with the Atlanta club in the Southern league, and is already playing in the outfield for that club.

If names count, the Danville club of the Three-I should be a team to satisfy. Among the rookies being tried out are Fine and Good, pitchers, and Wright and Proper are infielders.

Keep It Before You

WHEN Isaac Newton, the great mathematician and philosopher, was asked how he worked out a complicated problem, he replied:

"I keep it before me."

Glance through the advertising columns of this paper and in a few minutes you have before you numerous things you want to buy now or at some future date.

Advertising has stabilized prices. The advertiser names his price—one for all. You can know that in paying it you are getting the same deal as the next one.

Keep it before you. You owe it to your pocket-book.

Advertising has helped stabilize quality. Only the best wares are spread before you on these printed pages. The men who advertise here are making public certain claims, on the fulfillment of which depends their commercial success.

Keep it before you.

Advertising gives you news of the latest and best things made with word as to what they cost and what they will do. It puts before your eyes the pick of the country's market and the selection of the particular kind, shape, size and color that best suits your taste and fits your pocketbook.

Keep it before you.

QUEER FEELINGS AT MIDDLE AGE

Women Should Know How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helps at This Trying Period

Sheboygan, Wisconsin.—"I was run down, tired and nervous. I could not even do my own housework, could not sleep at night and all kinds of queer thoughts would come to me. Finally I gave up going to the doctor and a friend told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After the first bottle I could sleep better and I have kept on improving ever since. I have taken seven bottles now and am so happy that I am all over these bad feelings."—Mrs. B. LANSER, 1639 N. 3rd St., Sheboygan, Wisconsin.

For the woman entering middle age Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can be of much benefit. During this time of life certain changes take place which sometimes develop into serious trouble.

Melancholia, nervousness, irritability, headache and dizziness are some of the symptoms. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a natural restorative, especially adapted to assist nature in carrying you safely past this time. Why not give it a fair trial?

The members of the Always Present class of the Main Street Christian church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Ray Sample north of the city, Wednesday evening. All those who are planning to attend the meeting are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. Earl Osborne in West Fifth street by seven o'clock. As it will be an important meeting all the members are urged to be present.

Five little girls surprised Miss Nova Ryse at her home west of Carthage Sunday in remembrance of her eleventh birthday. At noon a birthday dinner was served, the table being adorned with a large bouquet of lilacs. The afternoon was enjoyed with games and taking pictures. The guests were Naomi Gray, Martha Macy, Margaret and Winifred Leisure, Vivian Hunt and Weldon Ryse.

The Coterie was delightfully entertained Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clara Bebout. "Present Day Poets" was the subject for discussion at this meeting, followed by several readings by popular poets. During the business meeting officers were elected for the ensuing year. Mrs. Horatio Havens was chosen president; Mrs. Douglas Morris and Mrs. Helen Pierson, vice-presidents; Mrs. Charles Newhouse, secretary; Miss Alice Norris, treasurer. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. The Coterie's annual luncheon will be served in two weeks.

Peggy Joyce, Famous Vamp, Admits She Likes to Pull Strings

By WEBB MILLER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Paris, May 9—"I liked to pull the strings. I liked to play with all of them. Now I'm through with men."

It was midnight in Peggy Hopkins Joyce's boudoir. The most famous vamp of modern times, for whose love two men are said to have killed themselves, who has been four times married and as many times divorced and who has run through fortunes totalling $3,000,000 in 12 years, laid bare her soul. She wept because she couldn't tell the secret of her fatal fascination.

"I like their admiration," Peggy cried. "It was life to me."

Ravishingly gowned in blue negligee, propped up in bed frothy with lace and silks, the former show girl, divorced wife of J. Stanley Joyce, drank beer and brandy, "by the doctors orders to strengthen my nerves" and smoked incessantly as she talked of her conquests of men, and their many tragic endings.

"I don't know why men run after me," the girl who has had the wealthiest and the most influential men of four continents at her feet declared in answer to a question.

"I cannot tell you the secret of my fascination."

"Never, no never, did I deliberately try to lure them into my net. I never meant to ruin their lives."

The latest of Peggy's victims, according to her claims, is young William Errazuriz, Chilean youth, who shot himself in the rooms next to her suite on Sunday because, according to Peggy, she refused to marry him. The blow has changed her life, the "million dollar siren" declared.

"I've learned that I loved Billy," she said, speaking of the Chilean youth. "And now it's too late. I loved him but I played with him. I dangled him on a string, just as I did many others. Oh, why did I do it? I'm young; I'm in love with life. I ought to have been contented with the man I loved and who loved me to distraction. But that's the way of the game. You play with them all and then you don't know where to stop. I loved the chase to have them pursue me. I made Billy dance the same tune as the rest and now he's dead."

Peggy sat up in her luxurious bed, a fetching figure despite her recent bereavement and called to her maid to bring in her two tiny poms. Then she made them romp and do tricks on the lacy coverlet, showing how one liked cigarette smoke and the other "just loved black coffee with a little brandy in it."

"See," she cried gayly, "they are just like these men who love me; they do their tricks because I applaud them. They just ask my admiration while I," she thrust out her beautiful arms in a descriptive gesture, "I insist that they worship me."

Peggy was asked to tell what she considered kept the hearts of wealthy men always at her feet.

"The secret of my charm? I cannot tell. Probably Cleopatra or those other women could have told. Most men are attracted by my clothes, my jewels, my face, my person—others because I'm Peggy Joyce. They don't care for the real me. Billy has gone forever. If I ever marry again," and here she seemed to smile reminiscently at the memory of her four husbands of the past. "I shall tell the man I cannot give him real love. That has gone from my life forever."

"I've learned my lesson," she declared, not too emphatically as her maid came in again to tuck her in for the night, and the interview closed.

"I'm through playing with men."

GIRLS! LEMONS

WHITEN SKIN AND
BLEACH FRECKLES

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quart of pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin. Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.

Are you under weight?

To build you up there is nothing like Yeast Foam Tablets

If under weight you are under "par," more susceptible to disease and are destined to be shorter lived. This is proved by life insurance records covering millions of policy holders.

Science says the richest source of the body-building vitamin, which many foods lack, is yeast. And the purest, most potent and easiest-to-take form of yeast is Yeast Foam Tablets.

Take these tablets along with your regular food. They will stimulate your appetite, aid digestion, build you up and make you feel better and stronger than you may have felt in years.

Yeast Foam Tablets are a splendid food corrective for children as well as adults. They are sold by all druggists. Northwestern Yeast Co., Chicago, Ill., makers of the baking yeasts, Yeast Foam and Magic Yeast.

$33,000,000 SPENT FOR HIGHWAYS IN 1921

Figures Compiled From Statistics by Indiana Highway Commission And Counties

COUNTIES SPENT $8,000,000

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., May 9.—Indiana spent $33,000,000 for highways in 1921.

Of this, the counties spent $8,000,000 of road tax funds and $17,000,000 of road construction bonds. The state highway department spent $8,000,000 for building bridges, constructing roads and maintenance of 3,300 miles of highway.

These figures were announced by a member of the Indiana Motor Transport today.

They were compiled from statistics from the highway commission reports and statistics from the counties. The county figures are particularly conservative, the members said. The figures quoted do not include expenditures of four of the large and prosperous counties, which undoubtedly spent $3,000,000 or more in tax funds and incomes from bond issues during 1921.

A vast portion of the total of $33,000,000 went into gravel stone and other water-bound highways and for construction and maintenance. To date, the state highway system has less than three hundred miles of permanent, hard-surfaced roads. There are also about 33,000 miles of improved county roads and only 1,000 are hard surfaced.

Indiana including counties spends much more money than nearby states, it was said. It has less than one fourth of the mileage of hard surfaced roads in its state system compared to that built by Illinois or Ohio.

Obituary

Mary Angeline, daughter of John K. and Mary Jane Stewart was born May 16, 1855 in Noble township, Rush county. She died March 21, 1922, at the age of 66 yrs., 10 mo., and 5 days.

She was married on the 27th of March, 1873 to Sanford Heaton. To this union, were born six children, all sons, two died in infancy, one died at the age of three years and one at the age of six years.

Another, Clyde, grew to manhood and died at the age of 34 years.

The husband, one son, Clarence of Detroit, two brothers, one sister, and a number of nieces and nephews survive.

Her life was lived very quietly in her home. Always performing the duties of her home with skill, pride and neatness.

Uncomplaining and always patient, she went through life and at the last, went smiling away. 491f

SHERIFF'S SALE

By virtue of a certified copy of a decree to me directed from the Clerk of the circuit court of Rush county, State of Indiana in the cause wherein the Capital Building Company is plaintiff and Cyrus Hilligoss and Lillian E. Hilligoss are defendants, requiring me to make the sum of Six Thousand Seven, Dollars and Forty Cents ($6007.40) with interest and costs on said decree.

I will expose at Public Sale to the highest bidder on Wednesday, the 31st day of May, 1922, between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m. at the north door of the Court House of Rush County, State of Indiana, the rents and profits for a term not exceeding seven years of the following real estate in Rush County, State of Indiana:

The northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of Section 33, Township 13 Range 9 east and the northeast quarter of Section 33, Township 13, Range 9 east, containing in both tracts 200 acres more or less.

If such rents and profits will not sell for a sufficient sum to satisfy said decree, with interest and costs I will at the same time and place expose to Public Sale the fee simple of said real estate or so much thereof as may be sufficient to discharge said decree. Said sale will be made without relief from Valuation or Appraisalment Laws. SIDNEY L. HUNT, Sheriff of Rush County, Ind.

MRS. M. E. MATHEWS DIES

Mother of Mrs. D. H. Stoops of This City Expires at Red Key

Mrs. M. E. Mathews, age about 75 years, is dead at her home in Red Key, Ind., according to word received this morning by her daughter, Mrs. D. H. Stoops of this city. Mrs. Mathews had been seriously ill but was thought to have been improving, and her death proved to be a shock to relatives.

The deceased is survived by three other daughters in addition to Mrs. Stoops—Mrs. Ad Payne and Miss Florence Mathews of Red Key, and Mrs. Ed Tyner of Kansas City, Mo., and one son Clyde Mathews of Indianapolis. The funeral arrangements have not been made.

AMUSEMENTS

Train Wreck Offers Thrill

A real train wreck provides one of the biggest thrills in "Stardust," the First National attraction, starring Hope Hampton, now showing at the Princess again today.

There is a stupendous head-on collision between two passenger trains, the coaches of which are telescoped and buckled and the locomotives twisted into a steaming pile of junk.

It's the real breath-taking thing, and at each showing of "Stardust," the gasp of the audience, with its resemblance to the hissing of escaping steam, lends a touch of added realism to the scene.

In the collision Albert Penny, the brutish husband of Lily Becker (Hope Hampton), who never felt that his little wife needed him until she became a great operatic star with a fabulous income, is brought to an untimely end.

Thus is the road paved for real love and true happiness for once forlorn Lily Becker of Paradise, Iowa.

The scenario for "Stardust," suggested by Fanny Hurst's successful novel of the same name, was prepared by Anthony Paul Kelly. The production, which is declared to be one of the best screen dramas of the season, was directed by Hobart Henley.

An excellent cast, headed by James Rennie as leading man, appears in support of Miss Hampton.

"Stardust" will conclude its engagement at the Princess theatre today.

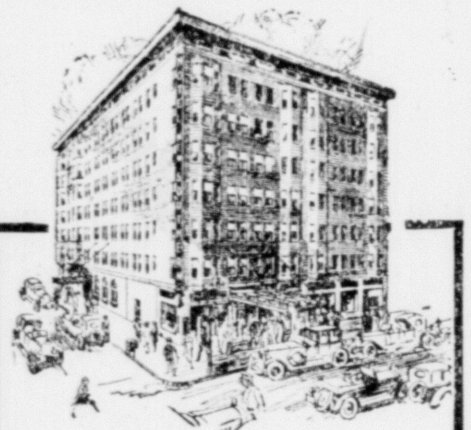

Opera Singer in Movies.

The announcement made by the management of the Mystic Theatre that today it will present to its patrons the famous young opera singer, Marguerite Namara, in "Stolen Moments," has caused quite a stir in local movie circles.

Miss Namara, or Madame Namara, as she is known on the operatic stage, ranks among the finest of American sopranos, and is in the same class with Geraldine Farrar.

Miss Namara, who in real life is exquisitely beautiful, loses none of her charm in being translated to the screen, while her rare gifts as an actress is given a far greater scope for expression before the camera than it had upon the operatic stage.

Lovesick Can No Longer Bill and Coo in City Parks

Evansville, Indiana, May 9—The lovesick of Evansville can no longer bill and coo in the city parks. The parks will be flooded with light.

And what's worse—Absolutely no spooning in the city parks. Spring may favor love making, the moon may add to its enchantment and the cooing birds may set the example, but—"there's to be no entwining arms and smacking of lips if I can help it," says Chief of Police Wiltshire, the perpetrator of this dictum.

"You see you just can't be given to romancing or poetry or be a dreamer in this business. We look on the practical side. The road to ruin is often in an innocent kiss."

Bright Spots in News

New York—Sixteen-year-old husbands who play hookey from school can't be bothered with truant officers, the judge ruled in telling Louis De Francesco to go on working to support his wife.

Chicago—New bungalows advertised for sale, were urged because of being completely equipped with wireless outfits.

St. Louis—"Things haven't been going very well lately," commented Enoch F. Buck, sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for participation in a five-cent holdup.

Birds Guard Our Trees.

We can spray orchards and shade trees with poisonous insecticides, but we would stand aghast at the impossible task of spraying all the trees in all the woods, says the American Forestry Magazine. We must perforce depend on the natural enemies of insects to protect our forests. Fortunately, birds and other foes of insects, wherever their numbers are sufficient, act as effective forest guardians.

VISITED IVY LODGE

Elmer Bassett, Harry McClain, Julius Theobald and David Goodman all of Shelbyville were here last night and attended the regular meeting of Ivy Lodge, Knights of Pythias. Mr. Bassett is the Grand Prelate, and is well known here.

How Arizona City Got Name.

Phoenix, Ariz., was built near the well-defined ruins of an ancient pueblo. Darell Duppa, a scholar who was with the men who chose the spot, said: "Let us call it Phoenix, for here, upon the old, a new city shall rise," and told them of the bird in mythology called phoenix which arose from its own ashes.

W. E. Smith Sues H. P. Mook

Two suits for divorce, a complaint on an account, a suit to quiet title and a complaint to foreclose a mortgage, have been docketed in the circuit court.

Thomas N. Barnes is plaintiff in a suit for divorce from Pearl Barnes, in which he charges her with neglecting her duties as housewife, going to places against his will, and being intimate with other men.

The plaintiff says in his complaint that they were married almost 29 years ago, in August 1891 and separated in May of this year, and that eleven children were born to them, all but four now being self supporting, and he demands the custody of these children.

Mollie Caudill is plaintiff in the other suit for divorce from Samuel Caudill, in which she also seeks the custody of a small child. They were married in Kentucky in January, 1920 and separated in November of the same year. She charges him with being lazy, and that he worked only two weeks during their nine months of married life. The plaintiff resides in Carthage, according to the complaint.

Edward I. Wooden, a physician, has filed suit against John M. Brown on an account, together with an affidavit for attachment. The demand is for $70 on the account, which is alleged to be overdue.

Walter E. Smith has filed suit against Henry P. Mook, demanding the foreclosure of a mortgage, and for judgment in the sum of $100.

Late G. Hall, et al., are plaintiffs in an action filed against Martha J. Gordon, et al., the complaint being to quiet the title of real estate, in which several parties are basing their claim as to the ownership.

In the circuit court business was quiet Monday and today on account of the absence of Judge Sparks, who is out of the city. The jury has not been called into service until Friday.

DIVORCE HEARING TO END LATE TODAY

Over Seventy Witnesses Summoned
For Trial of John T. Meek Against
Daisy Meek at Greensburg

INVOLVES 4-CORNERED AFFAIR

The divorce suit of John T. Meek against Daisy Meek, filed in the Decatur circuit court, involving a four corner affair with Glass Darnell and his wife Mabel Darnell involved as co-respondents to the couple, was expected to end this afternoon before Judge John Craig.

Over 70 witnesses had been summoned for the trial, most of them from the Milroy neighborhood, where the parties reside. A cross complaint filed by Mrs. Meek, which contained property disposal, was said to have been compromised in court yesterday, and this caused the trial to be much shorter than expected.

Jesse Hammond and Joe Morford, two farm hands employed by Meek, testified yesterday that they went into the home of Meeks in February, and came upon Darnell and Mrs. Meek, in a most peculiar predicament.

While the Meek couple is getting a divorce in Greensburg, the Darnell couple has a case pending in this court, in which each accuses the Meek family as being co-respondents in their cases.

MRS. MARY BROWN EXPIRES

Services Held This Afternoon For Resident of Manila

Funeral services were held this afternoon at the M. E. church in Manila for Mrs. Mary Brown, widow of Robert Brown, who expired at her home in Manila Sunday morning about 8:30 o'clock, death resulting from a complication of diseases. Burial was made this afternoon in the Bennett cemetery. The deceased was 79 years old, and lacked a few days of reaching her four score birthday.

Three sons survive, who are Scott Brown, Samuel Brown and John H. Brown, all of near Manila. The deceased was a member of the Seventh Day Adventist church at Waldron.

POSTAL IMPROVEMENT WEEK GETS RESULTS

Postal Authorities Notice Beneficial Effects Immediately After Making Plea to Patrons

ONE EXAMPLE IS CITED

The campaign conducted during Postal Improvement Week, May 1 to 6, is beginning to bear fruit, it was reported at the postoffice today. The plea for patrons to do certain things to expedite the handling of mail was immediately answered by many who had unthoughtfully been practicing the abuses which served to delay the mails.

The most frequent abuse in the past has been for business men to post a large collection of mail addressed to all parts of the country in the evening when it was impossible for the mail clerks to make any of the outgoing mails that evening; whereas if the mail had been posted at periods during the day, as written, all of it probably would have been sent out the day of mailing.

Frequently, too, it has been the habit of business men never to sort their mail before posting it, which delays the work of mail clerks in dispatching it. An example of the results which are being obtained was cited today, when it was recalled that a few hours after the plea to patrons to help improve the postal service, appeared in the Daily Republican Saturday, a Rushville man mailed a large number of letters, which were sorted by counties and enabled the clerks to distribute them in much less time and dispatch them.

BELIEVE JUVENILES ARE ENTERING STORES

Small Opening Cut Monday Night in Screen of H. A. Kramer Meat
Shop—Nothing is Taken

POLICE SUSPECT YOUTHS

The Harry A. Kramer meat market, located on North Main street, between Second and Third streets, was entered last night by a robber, whom the police believe is a juvenile, but after getting inside of the place, nothing was taken. A screen at a rear window was cut, and the window was pried open a few inches, which would scarcely admit a 12 or 14 years old child. The large cash register which works with a crank handle, could not be operated by the youth, although there was said to be about $40 in the drawer. The robber attempted to open the cash register, but in some manner got the keys locked, and as far as could be learned, nothing was taken.

The police believe that the petty thieving recently is being done by young boys, and last week barefoot tracks were left in the Big Four depot which was entered by prying up a window, and the tracks looked like those of a 10 or 12 year old boy, the police said.

SUIT IS DISMISSED

A suit for possession and damages, filed recently by J. T. Arbuckle against Harry Dawson, for possession of a house in South Harrison street, was dismissed in Justice Stech's court today.

TO BUY OLD HOME AT NEW HARMONY

Indiana Federation of Women's Clubs Plans to Purchase Historic Fauntleroy Residence

CAMPAIGN TO RAISE FUNDS

Mrs. C. L. Smullen as County Chairman of Federated Clubs, Has Charge of Movement Locally

The historic Fauntleroy home at New Harmony where the first woman's club in the United States was organized in 1859 will become the property of the Indiana Federation of Women's clubs if the movement to raise funds, started at the state convention last year, is successful.

Mrs. C. L. Smullen of Raleigh as county chairman of the federated clubs, has charge of the campaign to raise funds among the Rush county women's clubs affiliated with the state federation.

The abode of a number of eminent scientists and scholars as well as the birthplace of the first of America's clubs for women, the old home-stand, has been the subject of increasing interest in the past few years and the goal of many pilgrimages by motorists and travellers from every part of the country. Filled with rare and beautiful antiques, many of intrinsic value, it is said to be inferior to few of the most famous places in the New England states.

The price of the home, if sold to the federation, is $10,000, an absurdly low figure, it is said, as the furnishings themselves, including a rare old piano priced at $2,000 are themselves worth considerably more. The $10,000 covers the cost of the grounds, house, and furnishings complete.

The federation, composed of 500 clubs and a total membership of 20,000 women has organized to raise the fund. Mrs. O. M. Pittenger, as chairman for the committee is assisted by Harry Dalbey of Richmond is chairman of the sixth district.

The old Fauntleroy home is a frame dwelling, built in 1815, on land deeded to George Rapp in 1814. The architecture of the building is peculiar to the German style of 100 years ago—square, firm, with apparent lasting qualities, good for another century. The timber used, came from neighboring forests, and is hand-hewn hardwood hickory, walnut and oak. Labor was free and the community members in putting up the house used little metal and few nails in the construction. Even the joints were mortised.

Records show that one, Franz Pfeil and family, Rappites, were the first occupants. Ten years later, the Owen community took possession of the town and the building became the home of a number of scientists and authors of national prominence. Thomas Say, the father of American zoology, lived there with his artist wife, Lucy Sistare. In 1837, Oliver Evans, son of the inventor, came into possession of the place. He operated a foundry and made the first cast plays in Indiana.

In 1841 Robert Henry Fauntleroy became the owner. He was a man of marked ability, a mathematician, engineer, musician and inventor. Later he became one of the principal officers of the United States Coast Survey. Near Seattle, Wash., is an inlet, Fauntleroy Cove, named for him. Near the inlet are three mountain peaks named for members of his family.

He married Jane Dale Owen, the accomplished daughter of the eminent socialist, in 1835 and it was their oldest daughter, Constance, who founded the Minerva, the first woman's club of America. From this distinguished family the house receives its name. The house was enlarged and at different periods the Owen brothers at some time resided there. It was to this house that Robert Dale Owen, the statesman, returning from Washington, brought the astonishing news to those congregated in his home that "a man in congress had been bribed." Higher education was given the young people of the community at this house, as such a thing was not as yet afforded by the public schools.

STEVENS ASKS FOR A RECOUNT

Defeated Republican Candidate For Prosecutor Alleges Irregularities
in Counting Primary Ballots

CITES RIPLEY PRECINCT TWO

Asserts Board Refused to Count All Legal Votes Cast For Him—Defeated by 6 Votes by J. F. Joyce

Albert C. Stevens has filed a petition in the circuit court asking that a recount of votes be ordered in the 31 voting precincts of Rush county, alleging irregularity, illegality, mistakes and misconduct of the various primary officers in counting the votes last Tuesday, in which John F. Joyce was nominated by six votes, for the republican nomination of prosecuting attorney.

The contestor in the action sets out his plea in three specifications. If the court sustains the petition, he will appoint three commissioners, two republicans and a democrat, who will recount the votes, following a uniform standard in each precinct.

Mr. Stevens, in his complaint, sets out that the methods used in the precincts differed, and names the board of Ripley township Number 2 as showing irregularity: "that they omitted, failed and refused to count for contestor all legal votes cast for him therein for the nomination for said office; that they wrongfully counted for the contestee more votes than he received therein; that they failed and omitted to count for contestor votes received therein—but treated the same as marked, defaced and mutilated ballots."

He alleges further in this connection that his opponent received 67 votes and that he received 79 votes in this precinct, and that he believes that there were enough ballots wrongfully thrown out, which would give him a majority in the number.

He sets out that this circumstance also existed in other precincts, and calls attention to the fact that in some precincts his ballots were thrown out for being marked wrong, while in other precincts such ballots were counted for his opponent. His petition avers that all 31 precincts did not follow a uniform system of

Witness in Treason Trial Says William Blizard Exhorted Strikers
To "Go Get 'em."

WEST VA. HEARING CONTINUES

(By United Press)

Charleston, W. Va. May 9.—William Blizard, young miner leader, charged with treason, today was again linked with the march of the army of miners on Logan and Mingo counties last summer.

Frank Mitchell testifying for the state, charged that Blizard exhorted the miners on the battle line to "go get 'em."

Blizard's order, however, came after he had discovered a bomb near the firing line. "Now go get 'em," Blizard cried, apparently enraged at the finding of the bomb.

The defence produced a crude bomb about three feet in length which was said to have been dropped within the miners' line at Blair Mountain.

Mitchell testified he had been forced to join the miners' army by men who told him he had better go.

Adjutant General Charnock then was called to the stand. He declared that federal troops had confiscated about 250 rifles for the miners' army. Three of the rifles were exhibited to the jury.

A miner D. L. Reed of Edwight, testifying for the state, next took the witness stand and said he was custodian of the local union fund. He told how four armed men during the miners' war compelled him to issue blank checks for the fund.

GOVERNMENT IS NOT INFLUENCED BY GENOA

Regardless of Success or Failure of Conference, United States Will Not Deviate From Plans

RUSSIA "PASSES THE BUCK"

(By United Press)

Washington, May 9.—America will not be influenced in its dealings with Russia by the action of the Genoa conference nor by any steps by any European government, it was declared emphatically at the white house today. Regardless of the success or failure of the Genoa conference this government will not deviate from the plan originally laid down as the basis for resumption of relations with Russia.

Genoa, May 9.—The Russians today shifted to France the responsibility of beginning an end to the Genoa conference.

In plain American, the soviet delegation "passed the buck" upon the Russian reply to the allies' note, the soviet delegation announced it postponed completion of its reply until it is informed just where France stands.

Tchitcherine announced the Russian reply will not be ready before tomorrow at the earliest. He accompanied this announcement with a note to Senator Schanzer, who was chairman of the conference when the allied note was dispatched.

FINEST TRIBUTE TO PAY A MOTHER

Living up to Her Ideals is Best Way to Repay Her For Life of Service, Dr. Walker Says

SPEAKS TO ROTARY CLUB

Rotarians Who Visited Other Clubs
Last Week Report Experiences
At Noon Meeting Today

Living up to the ideals of his mother is the finest tribute any man can pay her, declared Dr. John M. Walker of this city, superintendent of the Comersville district of the Methodist Episcopal church, addressing the Rotary club at noon.

Every mother's principal desire for her son is that he be good, Dr. Walker said, and the boy who aspires to and reaches the mark set by his mother, is doing more in repayment for her life of sacrifice and service, than he could in any other way.

A. C. Cotton, physical director in the public schools, and W. J. Hill, a Greensburg Rotarian, were guests today, and short talks were made by Rushville Rotarians who visited other clubs last week. Those who spoke were Lee Endres, who attended the New York Rotary club; L. L. Allen, who was at Chicago; George Willse who was at Battle Creek, Mich.; Earl H. Payne, who was at Comersville, and Hugh E. Mauzy who was in Lafayette.

It was also announced to the club that the board of directors had elected George Griesser to succeed E. B. Thomas, who recently went to San Juan, Porto Rico, as a member of the board, and that Dr. Carl Berber had been selected treasurer to succeed Mr. Thomas.

Dr. Walker, in the short talk on next Sunday's observance, said that it was a splendid testimonial to human character and a refutation of the charge that people were mercenary.

He pointed out that the principal qualities of mother love were sympathy and appreciation and a practical sort of love that shows itself by giving all that it has.

"She exemplifies the spirit of service and self-sacrificing love," Dr. Walker declared, and he recalled from his own experiences "little signs that indicate what is back of a mother's heart."

"It is the spirit of sympathy, appreciation and practicality that makes mother unspeakably precious to us," he said.

He asserted that some were asking what the mothers of the future would be and placed in three classes those for whom some concern is felt—first, the so-called flapper, the suffragist and the club woman.

"We may well feel some concern about these sweet young things who are some times tempted beyond their endurance," Dr. Walker continued, "and we need to see that a certain measure of steadiness enters their life."

The speaker commented on the dangers seen in some quarters as the result of the emancipation of women, but declared that women will continue to marry and become good mothers as long as time goes on.

Dr. Walker said that probably the club woman should be more cause for concern than the suffragist, because of the rapid growth of the women's club movement and the disposition to neglect the home.

"No worse than some of us, however," he stated, "who join everything to be joined and belong to more lodges than there are nights in the week to attend."

Dr. Walker said women's clubs had resulted in women reading more widely and more generally, which in the end would give them a larger vision and would qualify them better for home duties.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.
Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

Accident Preventatives

Anything that will operate to cause motorists to be less careless at railroad grade crossings, will be of immense value in saving lives at this season when automobile touring is popular and growing more general constantly.

This is what a decision of a court in Cleveland is calculated to do. The court held that a railroad was entitled to judgment against the owners of a motor truck who stalled their machine on a grade crossing at West Park, Ohio, thereby causing a collision with a passenger train. The truck was demolished and the railroad company's property damaged to the extent of $1,902.69.

If careless drivers of automobiles give no thought to their lives and the lives of their passengers, they may be persuaded to be more cautious by the thought that a collision with a train is liable to dig into their pocketbook.

In granting the railroad company judgment for the full amount of damages claimed, the court took occasion to criticize the defendants for the negligent manner in which they operated their truck and called attention to the probability of such an accident resulting in the derailment of a passenger train with possible loss of life and serious injury to passengers.

This is the second time within five months that the paramountcy of the railroads' right to the right-of-way at grade crossings has been recognized by the courts. In the other case the New York Central was awarded judgment against the owner of a truck for the full amount of damages done to the railroad's property in a collision on a grade crossing.

Both decisions emphasize the point that it is the duty of motorists to stop, look and listen before attempting to negotiate a grade crossing, so that the maximum of protection may be assured travelers on trains which must of necessity be operated on regular schedules.

The facts in the case recently decided by the Cleveland court show that on the night of May 27, 1921, P. H. Gilbert and W. G. Goss drove their five-ton truck loaded with cinders onto the West Park grade crossing notwithstanding that they saw the headlight of the on-coming passenger train. Goss attempted to shift the motor into the second speed just as the truck started to cross the railroad tracks. He failed in the operation and stalled his engine. There was not time to signal the approaching train, the men leaving the truck just in time to escape the crash.

The grade crossing was planked and in good order. The regular crossing sign was in good condition and the view of the tracks was unobstructed, so that with the exercise of the ordinary precautions of safety first the accident could have been averted. It was clearly a case where the truckmen were negligent and the court, in awarding damages to the railroad company and criticizing the truck owners, took cognizance of the superior rights of railroads to grade crossing rights-of-way and also of the great danger to which passengers on trains are subjected because of the recklessness of some motorists.

MERITS WILL PLAY SUNDAY

To Occupy Grounds While the Tail Lights Are Away

The Rushville Merits will occupy the baseball diamonds at the Tail Light grounds on next Sunday, during the absence of the Tail Lights, and either the St. Paul team or an Indianapolis team, will be the attraction. Tickets for the game are being sold in advance, and may be purchased from the Two John's pool room, or from any of the Merits players. It is stated that all money received above the expenses, will be donated to some charitable organization.

The name of the team that will play here Sunday will be announced as soon as it is definitely learned.

STORM PREVENTS WORKOUT

I. U. Baseball Team Crossed Pacific in Teeth of 80 Mile Gale

Bloomington, Ind., May 9—Crossing the Pacific in the teeth of an eighty mile gale which dashed one sailor to death and kept most of the Hoosier passengers seasick was the experience of the Indiana University baseball team on its way to play a series in Japan.

A letter from the party, the first to reach this country, said that cold and storm prevented workouts on the deck which Coach Lewis had planned to put his men in condition for games with the Oriental players from Waseda University, Tokio. The men arrived with a burden of extra flesh and legs wobbling from the terrific ocean trip.

Exams are over—i. e., over 'our heads.

Rushville merchants have again showed their loyalty towards the school. Many firms who had accounts against the Senior Class, for things purchased for the Senior Class Play have either charged the class cost price or have refused to charge them at all. Beale Bros., Tinnors, furnished the light guards and reflectors for the stage lights and refused to accept any payment for them. Only one firm played the class dirt—this firm had the nerve to overcharge about five dollars. We'd like to print their name but can't for business reasons.

The school "gang" around Lytle's Grocery Store has moved from the stove in the rear of the store to the bench out in front, which is a sure sign of spring. Only a few more weeks until this "clubroom of philosophers" will be abandoned. During the winter the real dope on basketball games was thrashed out in the club's regular sessions, which were held every morning and noon before school hours. Only "north-enders" belong to this club—one exception—"Bud" Trennepohl, who comes up the railroad every morning from the west-end. Before adjourning for the summer vacation, the club extends a vote of thanks to Tom Lytle for his hospitality. Mr. Lytle did not charge the club any rent. He derived his profit from chewing gum, cigarettes, and candy sales to club members.

The Senior class day will be held at two o'clock Friday afternoon, May the 19. It will be the last chance of the Seniors for a final jab at underclassmen.

GOLFERS NOW DESIRE MORE USEFUL PRIZES

Silver Cup Trophies Are Rapidly Going Out of Style.

Persistent Tournament Winners Have Long Since Ceased to Admire Mentees of That Kind—Evans Has Big Collection.

Silver cups as golf trophies are fast going out of vogue, according to silversmiths, who say that the demand among the golfers for prizes has turned to more useful articles since the day of red jackets and red caps on the links has passed.

There is still a goodly demand for cups among golfers who win events only occasionally, but the persistent tournament winners have long since ceased to prize a silver cup that can only be added to a large number of previously won similar trophies.

Two years ago Stewart Stickney of St. Louis, who has won a barrel full of cups during his golfing career, arranged the prize lists at the Trans-Mississippi championship, held over the links of the St. Louis Country club, so that watches and other useful jewels took the place of cups. He declared that he would not help other golfers to clutter up their attics with useless cups. The utilitarian type of prizes for golf contests has been becoming more popular ever since.

The largest collection of cups won by any one player bears the name of Charles Evans, Jr., of Chicago, the only man to win both an amateur and an open championship in the same year. Evans has turned over all these cups to his club, and the Edgewater Golf club now has the work of keeping them polished and insured against loss. The cost of insurance on some 200 cups is considerable, and the burning of the vessels is equally as expensive.

In addition to useful articles of jewelry, medals are said to be coming into use more generally.

The End.

"I'll never ask another girl to marry me as long as I live," groaned the unhappy fellow. "What! Refused again?" asked his sympathetic friend. "No, accepted, you fool!"

The Score Board

Yesterday's hero—Kenneth Williams, Brown star, doubled in the ninth inning and drove in the run that beat the Senators, 6 to 5, and shoved them into last place.

When the White Sox threatened to tie the score in the ninth inning, Carl Mays was hustled into relieve George Miltay and he retired the side, the Yankees winning 7 to 5. Baker hit a homer.

Six runs scored in the last two innings brought the Pirates from way behind and gave them an 8 to 7 victory over the Robins.

"Kill the umpire" may not be new, but it is still in the fan's vocabulary.

The Central league has decided to try the split season idea again this year.

Gus Fisher, manager-catcher of the Oklahoma City entry, has developed an uncertain arm.

Mike Damm, veteran Eastern league catcher, has been sold by the Hartford club to Albany.

The veteran of veterans, Floyd Kroh, has been signed by the Evansville Three-I league club.

Jimmy Hamilton has added another veteran to his Charleston Sally league team in the person of Bill Leard.

The Omaha club has released First Baseman Junk Walters to the Charleston club of the South Atlantic league.

John Couch, the Reds' new right-hand pitcher, appears to have a lot of stuff, good speed and a sharp-breaking curve.

The Columbus association club has transferred Pitcher Jacoby and Infielder Shanahan to the Peoria Three-I club.

The Mayfield club of the new-Kitty league has signed the veteran Rudy Hulsitt as manager and second baseman.

The Raleigh club of the Piedmont has traded its star outfielder, Harry Dorsey, to Columbia of the South Atlantic league.

Tom Miller, outfielder, last season with Charlotte in the South Atlantic league, is a late acquisition by the Reading Internationals.

Infielder Bobby Smith was an eleventh-hour purchase by the New Orleans club. A year ago he was sold to Beaumont, where he went big last season.

Bill Holden, formerly outfielder with the Baltimore Orioles, has signed with the Atlanta club in the Southern league, and is already playing in the outfield for that club.

If names count, the Danville club of the Three-I should be a team to satisfy. Among the rookies being tried out are Fine and Good, pitchers, and Wright and Proper, are infielders.

Keep It Before You

WHEN Isaac Newton, the great mathematician and philosopher, was asked how he worked out a complicated problem, he replied:

"I keep it before me."

Glance through the advertising columns of this paper and in a few minutes you have before you numerous things you want to buy now or at some future date.

Advertising has stabilized prices. The advertiser names his price—one for all. You can know that in paying it you are getting the same deal as the next one.

Keep it before you. You owe it to your pocketbook.

Advertising has helped stabilize quality. Only the best wares are spread before you on these printed pages. The men who advertise here are making public certain claims, on the fulfillment of which depends their commercial success.

Keep it before you.

Advertising gives you news of the latest and best things made with word as to what they cost and what they will do. It puts before your eyes the pick of the country's market and the selection of the particular kind, shape, size and color that best suits your taste and fits your pocketbook.

QUEER FEELINGS AT MIDDLE AGE

Women Should Know How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helps at This Trying Period

Sheboygan, Wisconsin.—"I was run down, tired and nervous. I could not even do my own housework, could not sleep at night and all kinds of queer thoughts would come to me. Finally I gave up going to the doctor and a friend told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After the first bottle I could sleep better and I have kept on improving ever since. I have taken seven bottles now and am so happy that I am all over these bad feelings."—Mrs. B. LANSER, 1639 N. 3rd St., Sheboygan, Wisconsin.

For the woman entering middle age Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can be of much benefit. During this time of life certain changes take place which sometimes develop into serious trouble.

Melancholia, nervousness, irritability, headache and dizziness are some of the symptoms. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a natural restorative, especially adapted to assist nature in carrying you safely past this time. Why not give it a fair trial?

The W. R. C. will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the G. A. R. room at the court house, and all members are requested to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dearing entertained with a dinner party Sunday at their home west of the city. Those enjoying the delicious four course dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knecht and two children of this city, and Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Shauck of Arlington.

The King's Heralds of St. Paul's M. E. church held their May meeting at the home of Miriam Moore in North Harrison street Monday afternoon. At the close of the program which was conducted by Mrs. J. H. Scholl, light refreshments were served to eighteen members present.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Jessup of Indianapolis, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pickett, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Hege, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Myhler, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Wolverton, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Borden and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zimmer of Noblesville spent Sunday in this city, the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Gertler.

The members of the Always Present class of the Main Street Christian church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Ray Sample north of the city, Wednesday evening. All those who are planning to attend the meeting are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. Earl Osborne in West Fifth street by seven o'clock. As it will be an important meeting all the members are urged to be present.

Five little girls surprised Miss Nova Ryse at her home west of Carthage Sunday in remembrance of her eleventh birthday. At noon a birthday dinner was served, the table being adorned with a large bouquet of lilacs. The afternoon was enjoyed with games and taking pictures. The guests were Naomi Gray, Martha Macy, Margaret and Winifred Leisure, Vivian Hunt and Weldon Ryse.

The Coterie was delightfully entertained Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clara Behoul. "Present Day Poets" was the subject for discussion at this meeting, followed by several readings by popular poets. During the business meeting officers were elected for the ensuing year. Mrs. Horatio Havens was chosen president; Mrs. Douglas Morris and Mrs. Helen Pierson, vice-presidents; Mrs. Charles Newhouse, secretary; Miss Alice Norris, treasurer. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. The Coterie's annual luncheon will be served in two weeks.

Peggy Joyce, Famous Vamp, Admits She Likes to Pull Strings

By WEBB MILLER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Paris, May 9—"I liked to pull the strings. I liked to play with all of them. Now I'm through with men."

It was midnight in Peggy Hopkins Joyce's boudoir. The most famous vamp of modern times, for whose love two men are said to have killed themselves, who has been four times married and as many times divorced and who has run through fortunes totalling $3,000,000 in 12 years, laid bare her soul. She wept because she couldn't tell the secret of her fatal fascination.

"I like their admiration," Peggy cried. "It was life to me."

Ravishingly gowned in blue negligee, propped up in bed frothy with lace and silks, the former show girl, divorced wife of J. Stanley Joyce, drank beer and brandy, "by the doctors orders to strengthen my nerves" and smoked incessantly as she talked of her conquests of men, and their many tragic endings.

"I don't know why men run after me," the girl who has had the wealthiest and the most influential men of four continents at her feet declared in answer to a question.

"I cannot tell you the secret of my fascination.

"Never, no never, did I deliberately try to lure them into my net. I never meant to ruin their lives."

The latest of Peggy's victims, according to her claims, is young William Errazuriz, Chilean youth, who shot himself in the rooms next to her suite on Sunday because, according to Peggy, she refused to marry him. The blow has changed her life, she "million dollar siren" declared.

"I've learned that I loved Billy," she said, speaking of the Chilean youth. "And now it's too late. I loved him but I played with him. I dangled him on a string, just as I did many others. Oh, why did I do it?"

"I'm young; I'm in love with life. I ought to have been contented with the man I loved and who loved me to distraction. But that's the way of the game. You play with them all and then you don't know where to stop. I loved the chase to have them pursue me. I made Billy dance the same tune as the rest and now he's dead."

Peggy sat up in her luxurious bed, a fetching figure despite her recent bereavement and called to her maid to bring in her two tiny poms. Then she made them romp and do tricks on the lace coverlet, showing how one liked cigarette smoke and the other "just loved black coffee with a little brandy in it."

"See," she cried gayly, "they are just like these men who love me: they do their tricks because I applaud them. They just ask my admiration while I," she thrust out her beautiful arms in a descriptive gesture, "I insist that they worship me."

Peggy was asked to tell what she considered kept the hearts of wealthy men always at her feet.

"The secret of my charm? I cannot tell. Probably Cleopatra or those other women could have told. Most men are attracted by my clothes, my jewels, my face, my person—others because I'm Peggy Joyce. They don't care for the real me. Billy has gone forever. If I ever marry again," and here she seemed to smile reminiscently at the memory of her four husbands of the past. I shall tell the man I cannot give him real love. That has gone from my life forever.

"I've learned my lesson," she declared, not too emphatically as her maid came in again to tuck her in for the night, and the interview closed.

"I'm through playing with men."

Are you under weight?

To build you up there is nothing like Yeast Foam Tablets

If under weight you are under "par," more susceptible to disease and are destined to be shorter lived. This is proved by life insurance records covering millions of policy holders.

Science says the richest source of the body-building vitamin, which many foods lack, is yeast. And the purest, most potent and easiest-to-take form of yeast is Yeast Foam Tablets.

Take these tablets along with your regular food. They will stimulate your appetite, aid digestion, build you up and make you feel better and stronger than you may have felt in years.

Yeast Foam Tablets are a splendid food corrective for children as well as adults. They are sold by all druggists. Northwestern Yeast Co., Chicago, Ill., makers of the baking yeasts, Yeast Foam and Magic Yeast.

$33,000,000 SPENT FOR HIGHWAYS IN 1921

Figures Compiled From Statistics by Indiana Highway Commission and Counties

COUNTIES SPENT $8,000,000

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., May 9.—Indiana spent $33,000,000 for highways in 1921.

Of this, the counties spent $8,000,000 of road tax funds and $17,000,000 of road construction bonds. The state highway department spent $8,000,000 for building bridges, constructing roads and maintenance of 3,300 miles of highway.

These figures were announced by a member of the Indiana Motor Transport today.

They were compiled from statistics from the highway commission reports and statistics from the counties. The county figures are particularly conservative, the members said. The figures quoted do not include expenditures of four of the large and prosperous counties, which undoubtedly spent $3,000,000 or more in tax funds and incomes from bond issues during 1921.

A vast portion of the total of $33,000,000 went into gravel stone and other water-bound highways and for construction and maintenance. To date, the state highway system has less than three hundred miles of permanent, hard-surfaced roads. There are also about 33,000 miles of improved county roads and only 1,000 are hard surfaced.

Indiana including counties spends much more money than nearby states, it was said. It has less than one fourth of the mileage of hard surfaced roads in its state system compared to that built by Illinois or Ohio.

Obituary

Mary Angeline, daughter of John K. and Mary Jane Stewart was born May 16, 1855 in Noble township, Rush county. She died March 21, 1922, at the age of 66 yrs., 10 mo., and 5 days.

She was married on the 27th of March, 1873 to Sanford Heaton. To this union, were born six children, all sons, two died in infancy, one died at the age of three years and one at the age of six years.

Another, Clyde, grew to manhood and died at the age of 34 years.

The husband, one son, Clarence of Detroit, two daughters, one sister, and a number of nieces and nephews survive.

Her life was lived very quietly in her home. Always performing the duties of her home with skill, pride and neatness.

Uncomplaining and always patient, she went through life and at the last, went smiling away. 4911

SHERIFF'S SALE

By virtue of a certified copy of a decree to me directed from the Clerk of the circuit court of Rush county, State of Indiana in the cause wherein the Capital Building Company is plaintiff and Cyrus Hilligoss and Lillian E. Hilligoss are defendants, requiring me to make the sum of Six Thousand Seven Dollars and Forty Cents ($6007.40) with interest and costs on said decree.

I will expose at Public Sale to the highest bidder on Wednesday, the 31st day of May, 1922, between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m. at the north door of the Court House of Rush County, State of Indiana, the rents and profits for a term not exceeding seven years of the following real estate in Rush County, State of Indiana:

The northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of Section 33, Township 13 Range 9 east and the northeast quarter of Section 33; Township 13, Range 9 east, containing in both tracts 200 acres more or less.

If such rents and profits will not sell for a sufficient sum to satisfy said decree, with interest and costs I will at the same time and place expose to Public Sale the fee simple of said real estate or so much thereof as may be sufficient to discharge said decree. Said sale will be made without relief from Valuation or Appraisement Laws. SIDNEY L. HUNT, Sheriff of Rush County, Ind. May 2-9-16

Mother of Mrs. D. H. Stoops of This City Expires at Red Key

Mrs. M. E. Mathews, age about 75 years, is dead at her home in Red Key, Ind., according to word received this morning by her daughter, Mrs. D. H. Stoops of this city. Mrs. Mathews had been seriously ill but was thought to have been improving, and her death proved to be a shock to relatives.

The deceased is survived by three other daughters in addition to Mrs. Stoops—Mrs. Ad Payne and Miss Florence Mathews of Red Key, and Mrs. Ed Tyner of Kansas City, Mo., and one son Clyde Mathews of Indianapolis. The funeral arrangements have not been made.

AMUSEMENTS

Train Wreck Offers Thrill

A real train wreck provides one of the biggest thrills in "Stardust," the First National attraction, starring Hope Hampton, now showing at the Princess again today.

There is a stupendous head-on collision between two passenger trains, the coaches of which are telescoped and buckled and the locomotives twisted into a steaming pile of junk.

It's the real breath-taking thing, and at each showing of "Stardust" the gasp of the audience, with its resemblance to the hissing of escaping steam, lends a touch of added realism to the scene.

In the collision Albert Penny, the brutish husband of Lily Becker (Hope Hampton), who never felt that his little wife needed him until she became a great operatic star with a fabulous income, is brought to an untimely end.

Thus is the road paved for real love and true happiness for once forlorn Lily Becker of Paradise, Iowa.

The scenario for "Stardust," suggested by Fanny Hurst's successful novel of the same name, was prepared by Anthony Paul Kelly. The production, which is declared to be one of the best screen dramas of the season, was directed by Hobart Henley.

An excellent cast, headed by James Rennie as leading man, appears in support of Miss Hampton.

"Stardust" will conclude its engagement at the Princess theatre today.

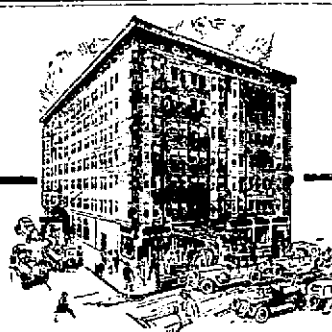

Opera Singer in Movies.

The announcement made by the management of the Mystic Theatre that today it will present to its patrons the famous young opera singer, Marguerite Namara, in "Stolen Moments," has caused quite a stir in local movie circles.

Miss Namara, or Madame Namara, as she is known on the operatic stage, ranks among the finest of American sopranos, and is in the same class with Geraldine Farrar.

Miss Namara, who in real life is exquisitely beautiful, loses none of her charm in being translated to the screen, while her rare gifts as an actress is given a far greater scope for expression before the camera than it had upon the operatic stage.

Lovesick Can No Longer Bill and Coe in City Parks

Evansville, Indiana, May 9—The lovesick of Evansville can no longer bill and coo in the city parks.

The parks will be flooded with light.

And what's worse—Absolutely no spooning in the city parks. Spring may favor love making, the moon may add to its enchantment and the cooling birds may set the example, but—"there's to be no entwining arms and smacking of lips if I can help it," says Chief of Police Wittshire, the perpetrator of this dictum.

"You see you just can't be given to romancing or poetry or be a dreamer in this business. We look on the practical side. The road to ruin is often in an innocent kiss."

Bright Spots in News

New York—Sixteen-year-old husbands who play hockey from school can't be bothered with truant officers, the judge ruled in telling Louis De Francesco to go on working to support his wife.

Chicago—New bungalows advertised for sale, were urged because of being completely equipped with wireless outfits.

St. Louis—"Things haven't been going very well lately," commented Enoch F. Buek, sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for participation in a five-cent holdup.

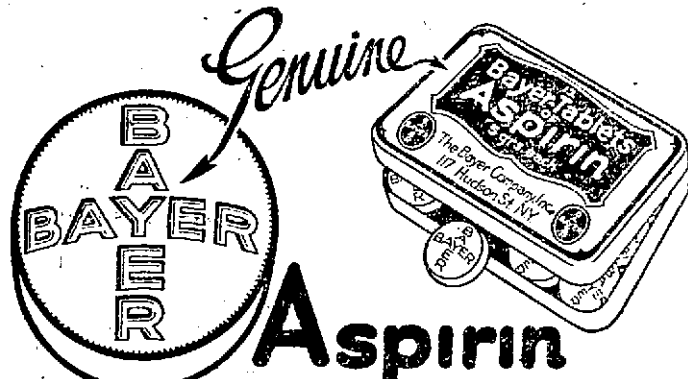

Birds Guard Our Trees.

We can spray orchards and shade trees with poisonous insecticides, but we would stand aghast at the impossible task of spraying all the trees in all the woods, says the American Forestry Magazine. We must perforce depend on the natural enemies of insects to protect our forests. Fortunately, birds and other foes of insects, wherever their numbers are sufficient, act as effective forest guardians.
